FIDELITY INVESTMENTS MOONLIGHT MOVIES RETURN FOR SECOND SEASON IN SEPTEMBER

City's free outdoor series returns for four-week run

GREENVILLE (SC) – The City of Greenville's popular Fidelity Investments Moonlight Movies series will return to Falls Park for a second season on Wednesday, September 5. The temporary venue change is a result of the construction underway at The Peace Center Amphitheatre. The free film series will run for four weeks and feature movies from a wide range of genres and periods, including High Noon, Twelve Angry Men, An American in Paris and a special Viewer's Choice.

"In conjunction with the City of Greenville, we are very excited to once again sponsor the Moonlight Movies outdoor classic film series," said Mike Doucette, Vice President and Branch Manager, Fidelity Investments. "We've got some great movies lined up for September, so please join us for some great family fun under the moonlight!"

The films begin at sundown (approximately 8:00 p.m.), but moviegoers are invited to come early and bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Pets are not allowed at City special events. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information about the Fidelity Investments Moonlight Movies, contact Will Young at 467-4484 or visit events.greenvillesc.gov.
